Dedicated to YOU
for making a difference
Over 20,000 people in Monroe County don’t have access to enough food.

More than 6,500 people are one paycheck away from losing their homes.

This is how you make a difference when people need you the most.
Our Mission
The Shalom Community Center is dedicated to aiding and empowering people experiencing homelessness and poverty in South Central Indiana.

Our Vision
Shalom Community Center envisions a community that honors every person’s fundamental right to sustenance, a safe home, quality health care, and meaningful work. We see ourselves as a key leader in providing the full range of support and services for people dealing with poverty and homelessness in South Central Indiana.

Our Values
HOSPITALITY: We extend community beyond the margins to include those unserved by society. We invite all people into our safe and welcoming space. Recognizing the many challenges our guests struggle with on a daily basis, we place as few barriers as possible between our guests and our services and resources.

DIGNITY: We value the worth and dignity of every person, treating all with compassion and respect. We honor the lives, concerns, and stories of people who have been marginalized by society and expect our staff, volunteers, and guests to do the same.

EMPOWERMENT: We strive to increase the economic and social strength of people in need. We help people develop confidence in their own capacities. We support people to make choices that improve the quality of their lives.

HOPE: We believe in the possibility each person possesses to create a sustainable, healthy and happy life. We work to nurture that hope in all people.
"No one knows his name—a man who lives on the streets and walks around in rags. Once I saw that man in a dream. He and God were building an extraordinary temple." - St. Francis

I am in awe of this simple premise—the idea that that which is most holy is actually working in concert with those who by some are considered the most reviled. In the language of my faith tradition, we say that we all are worthy before God.

Whether we come to this understanding of inherent worth by faith, reason, or experience, perhaps there is nothing more transformative than this offering of universal dignity, one to another.

Through your profound generosity to the Shalom Center, you have created a place that puts such dignity first. Together—supporters, clients, and staff—we are building an extraordinary temple.

For that, we can only respond with a profound “THANK YOU!!!”

While dignity is where we always start, it is not where we finish. On top of the nourishing environment we create, we also are actively investing in a unique blend of emergency resources and long-term solutions.

This simple guide is a testament to all that you make possible through your generous support of Shalom.

With gratitude,

Rev. Forrest Gilmore, Executive Director
(812) 334-5734, ext. 33, forrest@shalomcommunitycenter.org.
“Having a place like this can make the difference between somebody dying on the street and somebody completely pulling their life together and becoming a good parent, friend, and a mentor.”

Alana was raised in a family, surrounded by substance abuse, domestic violence, and mental and emotional abuse. She started using drugs at the age of 8 and was shocked when she first realized it wasn’t the norm for most people. After living on couches for years, she pitched a tent in the woods to separate herself from other addicts to get clean away from negative influences.

She turned to Shalom where she found hope in a listening ear, nourishment in a daily meal, and a foundation to obtain a job, health care, a home, and other essential services. Alana now works as a job developer at Centerstone’s Project HOPE (Helping Offenders through Partnership and Employment). Her passion is helping others in need, which she believes is crucial for her continued recovery.

“The Shalom Center was the lynchpin right at the very beginning that formed the foundation upon which I built everything. If I hadn’t had that foundation, I wouldn’t have been able to... maintain my sobriety, to get work, and to finally get housing.”
Voices of Support

“If Shalom wasn’t here, I wouldn’t know what to do. Shalom has helped me a lot, with clothes, food, diapers, formula, storage, prescriptions... all while helping me find a home.”
- Olivia Shipley, Natilee’s Mom

“Without the Shalom Center, it would be chaos... total chaos... not just for me but for other people like me that need help. Everybody looks down upon the homeless but people don’t understand why people become homeless.”
- Michale Williams

“If Shalom wasn’t here, I don’t know where I’d be at. They gave me some help and it was amazing because it really changed my life around. I still come to Shalom because it’s like a home to me.”
- William Blackwell

“I’m grateful for Shalom because they were there when I most desperately needed them... It was a place I could come and feel safe and I could find love and compassion... That’s what meant the most. I needed someone to care about me...and help me get in the right direction.”
- Jimmy Brown

Why Low Barrier Services Matter

At the Ending Homelessness Charrette meetings in late April, a speaker from Indiana's Department of Corrections helped me understand the importance of our services in a new way.

To paraphrase, he said, “Too many times the people trying to help are saying we can help you unless... unless you have an addiction problem... unless you have a felony... unless you are mentally ill... unless you can’t get a job... unless, unless, unless. If your goal is to end homelessness, you can’t say unless.”

Shalom is a low barrier daytime resource center. Interfaith Winter Shelter is a low barrier shelter. The new Crawford Homes permanent supportive housing is also low barrier or what is sometimes called a Housing First program. The meaning of low barrier is simple... we get rid of the “unless.” We try to place as few barriers as possible between the guest and our services. The only true requirement is safe behavior. Our business is hunger, homelessness, and poverty; if you’re hungry, we’ll feed you, if you’re homeless, we’ll shelter you, if you’re impoverished, we’ll support you.

The low barrier model is a national best practice for reaching the most people in need, especially the most vulnerable among us, the mentally ill and the addicted. It emphasizes safety, access, and engagement above all else. But it also saves the community money by reducing arrests and hospitalizations as we connect “frequent users” with essential services. It's not always pretty, but it works.

Someone wrote a comment on an article in our local paper. "We only should help the worthy poor." That’s exactly what we do. Because we believe everyone is worthy... worthy of dignity, worthy of a home, worthy of health care, worthy of life.

I recently spoke to John Fallon, the Program Manager for Reentry at CSH. When asking him about the value of low barrier approaches, he said that he always had a principle when deciding who he would help: “If not us, then who?”

That’s perhaps the simplest way of all to say what it means to be low barrier: If not us, then who?

If we truly want to end hunger, homelessness, and poverty, we cannot say unless.
